SINGER SONGWRITER

Storytelling & Music

Paula Sofía is a Guatemalan singer-songwriter based in Toronto. From the stage, Paula weaves a playful connection with her audience, turning each live performance into a unique, shared moment. While most of her songs are in Spanish, Paula transcends language boundaries through her quirky songwriting, vivid imagery, and a touch of playfulness. She navigates the human experience and shares it with her listeners through her melodious voice.

Discography

Her first solo project, Quinto de Hora (which translates into “A Fifth of an Hour”), produced by Alysha Brilla, is an album of 12 one-minute songs.

This project marked the beginning of her career, as she plans to release the other 4 “Fifths of an Hour” over the years while collaborating with different artists to get “around the the clock” in 60 songs.

Coming soon...

Paula Sofía has an album set to release in July 2024. Be sure to keep an ear out for the drop of five singles leading up to the album launch. Each song offers a glimpse into the diverse emotions and stories that the nighttime brings with it.

“Café No” - the first single of the project, is set to be released on Feb 16th
